

UnitedHealthcare (UHC) Medical Plan Changes for the 2025 Benefits Plan Year

- Rally Rewards will be replaced with UnitedHealthcare Rewards effective October 1, 2024. For more information, click here to watch a short video on the new program.
- Effective October 1, 2024 medically necessary mammoplasty (breast reduction surgery) will no longer be an exclusion.
- Effective October 1, 2024, there will be a lower cost share for Major Imaging services when enrollees access care with Designated Diagnostic Providers (DDPs). If a DDP is not used, these services will have a higher cost share. To find a DDP, enrollees will need to look for the green check at myuhc.com > Find Care & Costs. This will apply to all UHC plans except Hawaii, Puerto Rico and U.S. Territories plans. Please reference the client renewal site for further plan details.
- Effective October 1, 2024 UHC is adding the UHC 500 U.S. Territories plan to make medical coverage available in all U.S. territories. This new plan will mirror the existing UHC 500 PR Plan and will be added to all benefit programs regardless of the national carrier selection. Please reference the client renewal site for further plan details.
